

THE MATTHEW SHANE BAND

BIO The Matthew Shane Band Originated in the small town of Huntington out in deep east TX. The founding front man Matthew Shane Parrish, who is the Lead vocalist and Lead guitarist was born in Lufkin Tx. He established his unique style of guitar playing, singing, song writing from old Nashville country and west coast Bakersfield sound including rock and Texas blues. He later emerged into the Texas Country Music scene. He is continuously inspired by the traditional red dirt energy, and the talent that is sustained in that genre. Influences, "some but not all", Keith Whitley, Vern Gosdin, Brad Paisley, Waylon Jennings, Steve Earle, Travis Tritt, Stevie Ray Vaughn, Jason Boland, Randy Rogers, Radney Foster and Monty Dawson. The Matthew Shane Band recorded their first debut single, "You Got it", written and composed by Matthew Shane at Roop Records in Grand Cane, LA. It was released on September 11, 2020, which made its debut at #118 on The Texas Country Music Charts and Peaked at #42! It was featured on TCMA'S song of the week, Spotify's weekly top 25, and also on TCMA'S best Texas Country Picks Volume 4 CD!
